[Redacted]

We've completed our initial review of your [Redacted] tax return

We need more information to determine whether you're due a refund

We previously sent you a notice about our review of your tax return. We need more information to determine whether you:

- incorrectly reported income on your return
- incorrectly reported income tax withholding amount on your return
- incorrectly claimed tax credits on your return
- incorrectly claimed withholding on your Social Security benefits
- incorrectly claimed Household help and/or
- incorrectly claimed Schedule C income

We'll hold your refund until we receive your information and can make a final decision.

What you need to do

Send us any additional information that supports what you reported on your tax return by December 31, 2008. This can include:

- Copies of pay statements or check stubs that indicate the date, gross income received, and withholdings
- A notice on company letterhead from your employer that indicates your dates of employment, wages paid, and withholding deducted
- Copies of cancelled checks for household help that indicate the amount of income and when it was received
- Copies of cancelled checks, checks paid to the Schedule C business, invoices to or from the Schedule C business, or the Schedule C business's bank statements

If we don't hear from you

If you don't provide supporting information by December 31, 2008, we'll disallow all or part of your refund or send you a notice of deficiency, and you may receive a bill for an amount due.

Next steps

We'll hold your refund until we make a final determination about your tax return.

If the information you send supports your tax return

We'll accept your return as filed and send you a check for your refund. No further action will be needed on your part.

If the information you send doesn't support your tax return

We'll disallow all or part of your refund or send you a notice of deficiency, and you may receive a bill for an amount due. If you don't agree with our decision, you'll have the right to appeal.

Taxpayer Advocate Service

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS. We help taxpayers whose problems with the IRS are causing financial difficulties; who have tried but have not been able to resolve their problems with the IRS; and those who believe an IRS system or procedure is not working as it should. If you believe you are eligible for TAS assistance, you can reach TAS by call the TAS toll-free number at ██████████ or TTY/TDD ██████████ for hearing- and speech-impaired individuals. For more information, go to www.irs.gov/advocate.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITC)

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) are independent from the IRS. Some clinics serve individuals whose income is below a certain level and who need to resolve a tax problem. These clinics provide professional representation before the IRS or in court on audits, appeals, tax collection disputes, and other issues for free or for a small fee. Some clinics can provide information about taxpayer rights and responsibilities in many different languages for individuals who speak English as a second language. For more information and to find a clinic near you, see the LITC page on www.TaxpayerAdvocate.irs.gov or IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List. This publication is also available by calling 1-800-829-3676 or at your local IRS office.
